

LEGISLATURE
OVERVIEW

The Legislature is the State's highest lawmaking body. It is one of the three separate and independent branches of government that make up the checks and balances system created by the New Jersey Constitution and is empowered to appropriate funds for the operation of State government. The 40 members of the Senate are elected for a term of four years. The 80 members of the Assembly are elected for a term of two years. The Office of Legislative Services, a nonpartisan agency that provides legislators with economic and budget analyses required for making legislative decisions, is also a part of the legislative branch. Legislative commissions assist in the legislative process by providing in-depth studies, holding public hearings, and making recommendations on select issues as they arise.

The fiscal 2003 recommendation of $70.219 million for the legislative branch reflects a continuation budget with no significant increases or decreases. It provides $11.167 million to the Senate and $17.511 million to the Assembly. The recommendation provides $26.797 million to the Office of Legislative Services and $14.744 million to the various legislative commissions.

The fiscal 2003 Recommended Budget provides line-item appropriations to seven legislative commissions:

The Intergovernmental Relations Commission ($413,000) provides funding which permits the State of New Jersey to participate as a member of national and regional organizations.

The Joint Committee On Public Schools ($350,000) provides an ongoing study of the system of free public schools--its financing, administration, and operations.

The Commission on Business Efficiency in the Public Schools ($115,000) studies and recommends improvements that will result in greater efficiency in the operation of public schools.

The State Commission of Investigation ($3.98 million) probes organized crime and improprieties in the conduct of public-funded programs.

The New Jersey Law Revision Commission ($335,000) promotes and encourages the clarification and simplification of New Jersey laws.

The State Capitol Joint Management Commission ($9.4 million) ensures the artistic, historical and architectural integrity of any restoration or preservation project at the State House, the State House Annex, and the adjacent environs, and manages the capitol complex, including the security and janitorial services.

The Clean Ocean And Shore Trust Committee ($150,000) studies strategies to enhance coastal tourism, and preserve, protect, maintain, and restore the natural and scenic resources and the environmental integrity of the Hudson--Raritan estuary and the New York--New Jersey Bight area.
