Range: P95

Unit: Office of Solvency Regulation

Salary: $50,990.20- $53,324.31

Open To: Candidates who meet the requirements specified below, subject to current promotional and hiring restrictions.

DEFINITION: Under the close supervision of a Supervising Insurance Examiner, Insurance Examiner 1 or other supervisory official in the Department of Banking and Insurance, as a trainee and productive worker, receives on-the-job training in reviewing, auditing, and/or the examination and verification of accounts and records of insurance companies regulated by the Department; may be assigned to either field or central office locations as required; does other related duties as required.

Examples of work includes learning to review and evaluate financial statements of insurance companies, to examine and verify financial and related filings, accounts, records, and other interests of insurance companies and insurance holding company systems, and to conduct inspections of financial statements and reports, including bonds, mortgages, stocks, real estate, and other investments. Assist in the preparation of reviewing and/or examination tasks and compilation of findings and recommendations; assists in follow-up review to ensure that recommendations are properly communicated with management and satisfactorily addressed and/or implemented.

REQUIREMENTS

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's Degree, including or supplemented by twenty-one (21) semester hour credits in any one or in combination of the following areas of study: Banking, Insurance, Management, Financial Management, Risk Management, Information Technology, Mathematics, Business Law, Taxation, Accounting, Auditing, Statistics, Finance, Economics or Business Administration.

NOTE: Possession of a Master's degree in any field of study listed above would be considered to have met the education requirement.

NOTE: Possession of a valid certificate as a Certified Public Accountant issued by the New Jersey State Board of Accountancy, or a valid certificate as an Accredited Financial Examiner, Insurance Designation, issued by the Society of Financial Examiners may be substituted for the above education.

NOTE: Assignments may require travel to insurers' headquarters and possibly travel overnight out-of-state.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position.

ADVANCEMENT: Appointees who successfully complete the twelve (12) month training period will be eligible for advancement to the Insurance Examiner 3 title in accordance with the New Jersey Civil Service Commission procedures. The inability of an employee in this trainee title to attain a level of performance warranting advancement to the title listed above shall be considered as cause for separation.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: In accordance with the New Jersey First Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14-7 \(L. 2011, Chapter 70\), effective September 1, 2011, newly hired State government employees must reside in the State of New Jersey, unless exempted under the law. If you do not reside in New Jersey, you have one year after you begin employment to relocate your residence to New Jersey. Employees who fail to meet the residency requirements are subject to removal from employment.
